

January 10, 2011

To whom it may concern,

Jeremy was great to work with. He worked within our guidelines while providing valuable input and suggestions, resulting in our company finding a property and lease that we are very happy with.

We had located office space on our own before, but now truly see the value of using a commercial real estate consultant who had our best interests in mind. We highly recommend using his services.

Josh Davids
President
Scytec Consulting Inc.