Subject: Greg Johnson

To Whom It May Concern,

We have worked with Greg on a few occasions in his commercial real estate role.

As small business owners it is difficult to master the myriad functional expertise required, especially in an area like commercial real estate, being that it comes up only every few years. That is exactly why we like to rely on trusted advisors in such matters; and Greg quickly became one of those. Greg provided great guidance and knowledge; helpfully explaining when needed, and adept at taking important issues head-on. He helped us address variables we were hesitant on, and some we hadn't considered, (when they subsequently arose, we were in retrospect very glad to have had solid advice and planning).

Greg is a pro; but with a genial nature and a can-do attitude. We trusted him, and both sides of our transaction felt comfortable and well-served by his involvement.

We found Greg to be knowledgeable, responsive, thoroughly professional, and an energetic advocate; we would unhesitatingly recommend him.

Sincerely,

Timothy Bradley
